Standard & Poor's:
Short-term rating	A-1*
Long-term rating	A+*

DBRS:
Short-term rating	R-1 middle*
Long-term rating	A (high)*

Manulife Bank of Canada is a member of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation (CDIC).

*As at March 22, 2012, Standard & Poor's Manulife Bank ratings are A+ (long term) and A-1 (short term) with a Stable Outlook. A long-term issuer credit rating of A indicates a "strong capacity to meet its financial commitments". A is the third highest rating out of 10. A short-term issuer credit rating of A-1 denotes "a strong capacity to meet its financial commitments." A-1 is Standard & Poor's highest short term rating category. As at May 18, 2012, DBRS has affirmed Manulife Bank's long-term deposit rating of A (high) and its short-term deposit rating of R-1 (middle). Long-term debt rated A is "of satisfactory credit quality and protection of interest and principal is still substantial." A is the third-highest rating out of ten. Each rating category (except AAA and D) is denoted by the subcategories "high" and "low". The absence of either a "high" or "low" designation indicates the rating is in the "middle" of the category. Short-term debt rated R-1 (middle) is of "superior credit quality and typically exemplifies above-average strength in key areas of consideration for the timely repayment of short-term liabilities." The rating R-1 (middle) is the second-highest rating out of 10.

All data unless otherwise specified is at June 30, 2012.
